First Office Action on the Merits

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 52-67, 83 and 84 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The instant claims recite compounds of formula (I) wherein R^4 is C_{10} alkyl. However, the subgenus of compounds recited by the instant claims was not described in the present and/or parent specification. The addition of specific compounds after a broader original disclosure constitutes new matter because said subject matter was not described in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention (see MPEP § 706.03(o)).

Double Patenting

3. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

4. Claims 45-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-7 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,670,352. This is a double patenting rejection.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 68-84 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 8 and 17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,670,352. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both encompass a process of making $7\alpha,11\beta$ - dimethyl-17 β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one. The present application differs from the patent by reciting a broader genus of compounds made. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize the process of the present application in the production of 7 α ,11 β -dimethyl-17 β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one because the genus of compounds recited by the instant claim encompass the above-mentioned compound (see especially claim 82 of the present application).

7. Claims 44-67 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 5-14 and 19-26 of U.S. Patent No. 6,369,047. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both encompass 7 α ,11 β -dimethyl-17 β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one. The patent differs from the present application by reciting a broader genus of compounds. However, the compound of the instant application would be obvious to the skilled artisan because the cited patent teaches the instantly claimed compound, i.e., 7 α ,11 β -dimethyl-17 β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one (see claim 26, lines 27-28 of the above-cited patent).

8. Claims 44-67 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3, 5-14 and 19-25 of U.S. Patent No. 5,952,319. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both encompass $7\alpha, 11\beta$ -dimethyl- 17β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one. The patent differs from the present application by reciting a broader genus of compounds. However, the compound of the instant application would be obvious to the skilled artisan because the cited patent teaches the instantly claimed compound, i.e., $7\alpha, 11\beta$ -dimethyl- 17β [[[(trans-4-(n-butyl)cyclohexyl)carbonyl]oxy]estr-4-en-one (see claim 3, lines 20-21 of the above-cited patent).
